

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Ancient Architecture Discussion Group

Hilary 2023 Term Card

Fridays at 4 pm - Lincoln College - Lower Lecture Room, and on MS Teams

Twitter: @oxfordAADG

Space is the Place: Experiencing the Interplay of Architecture and Space in the Classical World

Organisers: Allia Benner and Corso Dominici

27 January (Keynote speaker, In Person)

Prof. Guy Bradley (Professor of Roman and Early Italian History, Cardiff University)

Performance Culture and Space in Archaic Rome

3 February (Online)

Mr. Antonio LoPiano (PhD Candidate, Classical Studies, Duke University)

Inventing Public Space in Central Italy: A Spatial-Behavioral Approach

10 February (Online)

Dr. Adrian Kröger-Hielscher (Research Assistant, Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel)

Through the Proasteion into the Asty: Design and Use of (sub)Urban Transition Spaces

17 February (In Person)

Ms. Vanda Strachan (PhD Candidate, Ancient History, University of Oxford)

The Spaces & Places of Lightning in Ancient Architecture

24 February (Special Guest, In Person)

Mr. Vincenzo Timpano (PhD Candidate, Archaeology, Humboldt Universität zu Berlin)

Performing Rituals, Defining Places: An Archaeology of Ritual Practices in Late Orientalising and Archaic Rome

28 February (Special Guest, In Person)

Dr. Robinson Krämer (Postdoctoral Research Assistant, Universität Rostock)

Constructions and Transformations of Sacred Landscapes: Sanctuaries in Early Etruscan City-States as Socio-Political Spaces (8th-5th cent. BCE)

3 March (Online)

Ms. Maximiliane Gindele (PhD Candidate, Ancient History, Universität Tübingen)

Meaningful Emptiness: Open Spaces as Places of Remembrance in Republican Rome

10 March (In Person)

Ms. Catherine Teitz (PhD Candidate, Classical Archaeology, Stanford University)

The Best Laid Plans: Using Everyday Urbanism to Make Space on the Frontier