

GRADUATE ARCHAEOLOGY AT OXFORD

GRADUATE SKILLS SEMINARS

HILARY TERM 2019

The Graduate Skills Seminars organized by the GAO are brief introductions to practical topics that aim to give students the necessary skills to be more versatile in the field and in their future careers

Seminars are held weekly on Wednesdays 15.00 - 16.00

due to limited space, registration is mandatory

please email gao@arch.ox.ac.uk with your name and the seminar(s) for which you would like to register

Week 3 (30th January 2019): Moving from a research question to a literature review

Helen Worrel

The seminar will be held in the Information Skills Room of the Social Science Library

Week 4 (6th February 2019): GIS and Archaeology: introduction

Gian Piero Milani

Seminar Room, Institute of Archaeology

Week 5 (13th February 2019): GIS and Archaeology: applications

Gian Piero Milani

Seminar Room, Institute of Archaeology

Week 6 (20th February 2019): Photographing small finds

Ian Cartwright

This workshop will be held from 10am to 1pm in the basement of the Institute of Archaeology and has a maximum enrolment of eight students

Week 7 (27th February 2019): Preparing for Transfer and Confirmation

Rick Schulting

Seminar Room, Institute of Archaeology

Week 8 (6th March 2019): Archaeological Illustration

Magdalena Wachnik

Seminar Room, Institute of Archaeology