

Oxford University Numismatic Society

Termcard HT 2021

Week 2 (Tuesday 26th January at 5pm): Dr. Rebecca Darley (Birkbeck College, University of London), "Numismatic Perspectives on the Western Indian Ocean in Late Antiquity".

Week 4 (Tuesday 9th February at 5pm): Dr. Rory Naismith (Corpus Christi College, Cambridge), "A Money-Making Scheme? The Dynamics of Coin Production in the Early Middle Ages".

Week 5 (Tuesday 16th February at 5pm): Prof. François de Callataÿ (Royal Library of Belgium / École Pratique des Hautes Études) "Fontes Inedites Numismaticae Antiquae (FINA): A Website with Already 4,000 Letters Written before 1800 and Dealing with Greek and Roman Coinages".

Week 8 (Tuesday 9th March at 5pm): Oxford University Numismatic Society Graduate Circus.

Graduate students from the University of Oxford will present on their current research.

Sabina Fiolna: "The Ecology of South-Western Asia Minor in the Roman Period"

Thomas Bull: "Portraiture, Power, Pragmatism: Coin Iconography as Part of Ptolemaic State-Building"

Matthew Ball: "The Circulation of Imperial Messages on Roman Coinage from Trajan to Commodus (AD 98-192)"

All talks will take place over Microsoft Teams and will be followed by discussion. All those interested in attending should email daniel.etches@new.ox.ac.uk to sign up to our mailing list and receive the meeting links.