

Palaeolithic and Quaternary Seminars

Hilary Term, 2018

PalQuat Seminars are held on Thursdays during term time, from 5-6 pm in the upstairs lecture room at the Institute of Archaeology (36 Beaumont St.). All are welcome to attend!

We are on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/palquat/>), and twitter (@PalQuat). To join the PalQuat mailing list, please contact abigail.desmond@arch.ox.ac.uk or nicolas.perrault@arch.ox.ac.uk.

W0, 11 January: Prof. Rainer Grün
Griffith University

Dating of human fossils and the ever changing story of human evolution

W1, 18 January: Prof. Dorian Fuller
University College London

The archaeology of protracted plant domestications and implications for Pleistocene selection pressures on cereals

W2, 25 January: Prof. Julia Lee-Thorp
University of Oxford
TBA

W3, 1 February: Dr. Rhiannon Stevens
University College London
TBA

W4, 8 February: Dr. Michael Haslam
The evolution of stone technology across the animal kingdom

W5, 15 February: Prof. Mike Buckley
University of Manchester
Proteomics in the analysis of Quaternary skeletal remains

W6, 22 February Prof. Matthew Pope
University College London

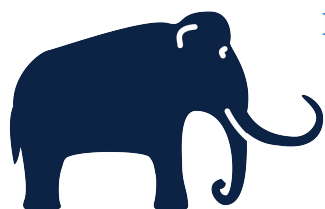

La Manche: approaching a Pleistocene region and the Neanderthal record of North West Europe

W7, 1 March: Prof. Chris Stringer

poss. change in venue, please check our facebook for updates

Natural History Museum, London

Reconstructing the evolutionary history of Homo sapiens

PalQuat

W8, 8 March: Dr. John McNabb
University of Southampton
Genes, memes and handaxes - the genetic basis for Acheulean culture

