

Bioarchaeology Seminars

Michaelmas Term 2017

Mondays 1200–1300, Lecture room, 1 SPR

Week 1: 9 October

Uncovering the earliest evidence for the ivory trade in southern Africa
Dr Ashley Coutu, Sainsbury Research Unit, University of East Anglia

Week 2: 16 October

Lab Meeting

Week 3: 23 October

Title TBC - Mummies and skeletal remains from the Nile Valley
Dr Daniel Antoine, Department of Ancient Egypt and Sudan,
British Museum

Week 4: 30 October

Pachacamac: Bioarchaeological approaches to mass graves, population biology and lifestyle in the Peruvian Late Intermediate Period
Dr Lawrence Owens, History, Classics and Archaeology,
Birkbeck College, University of London

Week 5: 6 November

Late Pleistocene burials from Taforalt, Morocco
Dr Louise Humphrey, Vertebrates and Anthropology
Palaeobiology, Natural History Museum

Week 6: 13 November

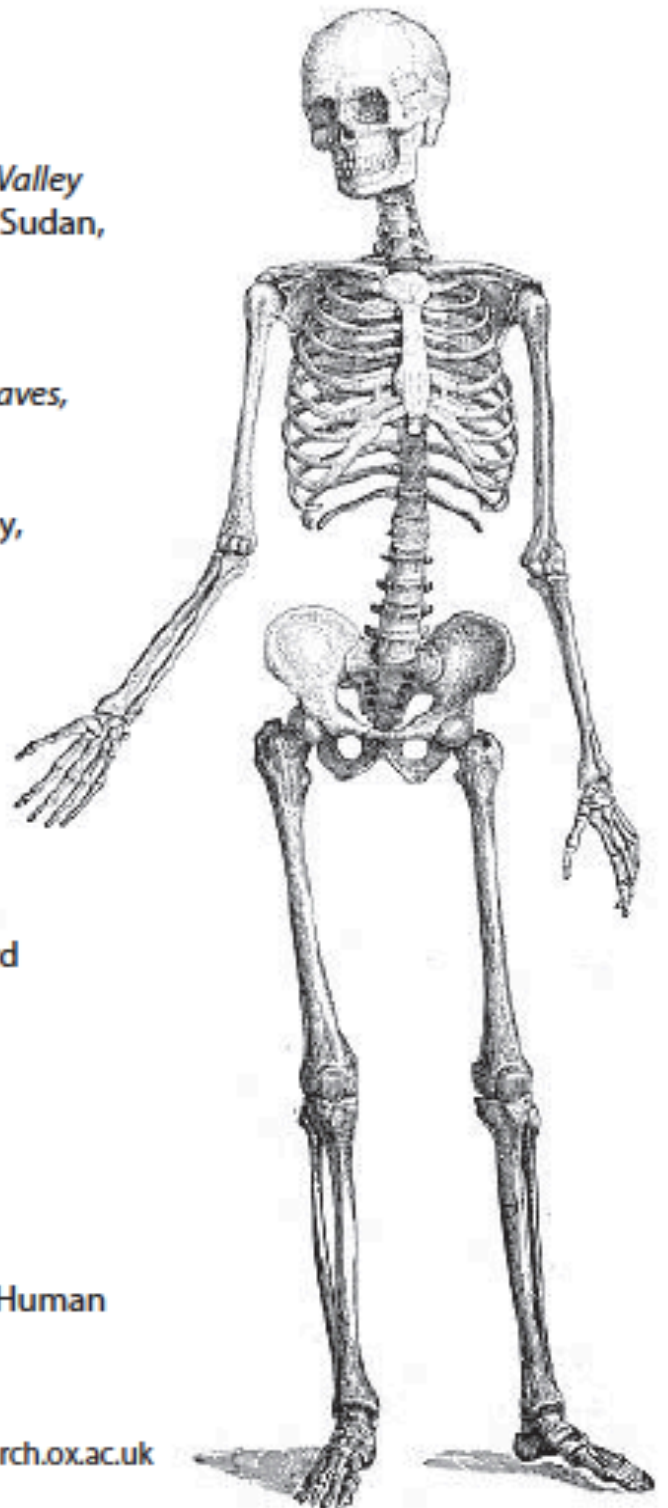

Species identification from archaeological samples
Antony Dimopoulos, PalaeoBARN, University of Oxford

Week 7: 20 November

Title TBC - Neanderthals, trees and dental calculus
Dr Anita Radini, BioArch, University of York

Week 8: 27 November

The messages from bones and genomes
Dr Michael Westaway, Australian Research Centre for Human Evolution, Griffith University

For more information please contact jaimie.swift@arch.ox.ac.uk