

Bioarchaeology Seminars

Trinity Term 2018
Mondays 1200–1300, 1 SPR Lecture room

Week 1: 23 April

No Seminar

Week 2: 30 April

Born in Bradford - 19th century and now

Dr Julia Beaumont, School of Archaeological and Forensic Sciences,
University of Bradford

Week 3: 7 May

Bank Holiday - No Seminar

Week 4: 14 May

Educating pork; isotopic insights from a controlled feeding experiment

Dr Jamie Lewis
School of Chemistry, University of Bristol

Week 5: 21 May

Uncovering the earliest evidence for the ivory trade in southern Africa

Dr Ashley Coutu, School of History, Classics and Archaeology,
Newcastle University

Week 6: 28 May

Bank Holiday - No Seminar

Week 7: 4 June

Beasts to craft: What codicology can learn from zooarchaeology (and vice versa)

Prof. Matthew Collins, BioArCh, Department of Archaeology,
University of York

Week 8: 11 June

Excavations at the old Radcliffe Infirmary burial ground: An archaeological perspective on medical care, teaching and research

Dr Louise Loe
Oxford Archaeology

