

Bioarchaeology seminar series

Michaelmas Term 2025

Mondays, 12:00 – 1:00 pm, In-person (SPR1, Lecture Room) and streamed via Microsoft Teams

Teams Link for all sessions:

Bioarchaeology Seminar Series | Meeting-Join | Microsoft Teams

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| (W2) 20th October | Shyama Vermeersch, University of Oxford
Reconstructing Bronze and Iron Age agropastoral systems of the Levant using stable isotopes: case-studies from Jordan and Syria. |
| (W4) 3rd November | Alice Williams & Mica Jones, University of Oxford
Using archaeobotany and archaeozoology to understand migration in Iron Age southern Africa (New Bantu Mosaics project) |
| (W6) 17th November | Magdalena Blanz, University of Oxford
Seaweed-eating sheep, fish-eating dogs and forest-grazing cattle: Stable isotope insights into Neolithic animal diets |
| (W8) 1st December | Maria Ana Correia, ICArEHB, Universidade do Algarve, Portugal
Carbon and nitrogen stable isotope analyses of incremental dentine samples from Meso-Neolithic Portugal |

For more information please contact Amy Styring (amy.styring@arch.ox.ac.uk)